

Satisfactory Academic Progress Termination Appeal

Students who fail to meet the SAP requirements after their probationary semester are considered to be ineligible to receive veteran’s educational benefits. Such a student may appeal his/her eligibility status. If approved, benefits will be reinstated for a probationary period. An appeal must be based on significant extenuating circumstance that seriously impacted academic performance.

Please note that filing a SAP Appeal does not guarantee continued eligibility for veteran’s educational benefits.

Procedure:

Students wishing to appeal must submit this form complete in its entirety and provide supplemental documentation, if applicable. Please provide an explanation of extenuating circumstances that directly impacted your ability to meet the minimum requirements of the SAP policy for each semester of poor academic performance. Describe the steps that you have taken or will take to address or improve your academic performance. If applicable, attach documentation to support your appeal. Students will be notified of a decision by e-mail.

It is understood that veteran’s educational benefits may be needed in order for you to attend classes, this is not a valid reason for approval of an appeal. No consideration will be given for a student’s inability to pay. The approval of the appeal is based on your academic history, your explanation, the strength of your documentation, your plan of improvement and whether or not you can achieve the minimum requirements of a cumulative 2.0 GPA within two semesters.

NOTE the suggested documentation required for each situation.
