For Information Only (FIO)

Student Code of Conduct

- The purpose of the Student Code of Conduct (Student Code) is not to restrict freedom, but to protect the rights of all students in their academic pursuits.
- Students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with generally-accepted standards, while appropriately incorporating the College's Core Values of: Accountability, Respect, Responsibility, Critical Thinking, Communication, and Collaboration.

For Information Only (FIO) Letter

- The instructor has submitted a report to the Office of Student Conduct
- The student was found to have been in violation of the Academic Integrity Policy
- The violation was concerning an incident where the student was found to have either plagiarized or cheated on an assignment
- The violation may be the first-time reported violation of the Academic Integrity Policy

Academic Penalties

- Loss of Grade A "0" for an assignment, quiz or test.
- Reduction in points for the assignment
- Loss of Credit An "F" for the course and loss of the right to attend remaining class sessions if the student appeals and the instructor's decision is upheld.

Academic Penalty vs. Conduct Sanction

Academic Penalty

- Given by Instructor
- Can Include a grade of "0", reduction in points, or an "F" for the course
- Conduct Sanction
  - Given by Conduct Officer
  - Can lead to an Educational Conversation or other Sanctions

What Happens Next?

- Questions regarding the assignment should be addressed with the instructor
- You do not need to meet with a Conduct Officer unless you choose to

Can I Appeal the FIO Letter?

- No, unless you feel this FIO was given to you in error
- You would need to consult with the instructor
- Instructor would then notify Student Conduct in the case of an error
