

ELECTRICAL SYSTEMS TECHNOLOGY

electrical.waketech.edu

Diploma or Associate in Applied Science Degree

This program provides training for anyone interested in installing and maintaining electrical systems in residential, commercial, and industrial facilities. The courses are taught with the assumption a student has no prior knowledge or experience in electricity or electrical control systems. This program provides hands-on training to prepare graduates to become entry-level electricians.

ENGINEERING, TECHNOLOGIES AND SKILLED TRADES DIVISION

Visit our website to watch videos and learn more about the program's coursework, short-term certificate opportunities, course descriptions, industry-standard credentialing opportunities, student activities/clubs, apprenticeships, SkillsUSA, options to transfer to university after earning the degree, scholarships, advising, career fields, career services, and any applicable physical and technical standards necessary to enroll in the program.

etst.waketech.edu

A series of 15 horizontal blue dotted lines, evenly spaced, occupying the lower half of the page. These lines are intended for handwritten notes or contact information.