

CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT TECHNOLOGY

cmt.waketech.edu

Associate in Applied Science Degree

This program provides students with opportunities to develop technical skills and basic construction management techniques for employment in industry applications. The program prepares students to supervise, manage and inspect construction sites, buildings, and associated facilities with emphasis on construction materials, safety, management and supervision fundamentals, labor relations, scheduling, estimating, cost control, blueprint reading, insurance, and construction law and regulations.

ENGINEERING, TECHNOLOGIES AND SKILLED TRADES DIVISION

Visit our website to watch videos and learn more about the program's coursework, short-term certificate opportunities, course descriptions, industry-standard credentialing opportunities, student activities/clubs, apprenticeships, SkillsUSA, options to transfer to university after earning the degree, scholarships, advising, career fields, career services, and any applicable physical and technical standards necessary to enroll in the program.

etst.waketech.edu

A series of 15 horizontal blue dotted lines, spaced evenly down the page, providing a template for handwritten notes or contact information.